DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claims 1-4 are objected to because of the following informalities: The MPEP requires that each claim begins with a capital letter and ends with a period. Periods may not be used elsewhere in the claims except for abbreviations. See MPEP 608.01(m). Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 recites the limitations "the inner driver timing belt" and "the outer driven timing belt" in lines 5 and 7; claim 2 recites the limitation "the bottom teeth" in line 10; claim 3 recites the limitations "the interface drive pulley", "said outer driven timing belt timing teeth", "the interface driven plane", and "the interface gap" in lines 4, 5, 6, and 8, respectively; claim 4 recites the limitations "said interface drive plane width", "the space", "said hybrid pulley assembly", and "the apparatus" in lines 1, 2, 3, and 4, respectively. There are insufficient antecedent basis for these limitations in the claims.

In claim 2 it is unclear if "a timing pulley" in lines 14 and 15 is the same as the "inner driver timing pulley" of claim 1.

In claim 4 it is unclear what is being claimed by the limitation that the hybrid pulley is driven from within. For this office action the limitation is being interpreted as the inner pulley drives the outer pulleys.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hoyt (US 5,415,592).

Hoyt discloses a timing pulley comprising: an inner driver pulley (14), two outer driven pulleys (16), an inner driver belt (24), and an outer driven belt (28).

Re claim 2, the inner pulley drives the outer pulleys (col. 4 lines 51-66), in diameter of the inner pulley is less than the outer pulleys (see Fig 3), the inner pulley supports the outer belt teeth, so that the outer belt is partially supported by the inner belt (see Fig 3), and the inner belt is driven by a motor shaft (col. 4 lines 19-23).

Re claim 3, it is inherent that the inner belt of Hoyt contains a top surface defining a plane, the bottom surface of the outer belt defines a plane, and that the space between the planes enclose a gap (see Fig 2).

Re claim 4, the drive plane width is within the space occupied by the outer timing belt, and the inner pulley drives the outer pulley (see Fig 2).
